Flight Arrangements

The CBU has negotiated preferential airfare for Assembly delegates travelling on Copa Airlines, the official airline of the AGA. The fifteen percent (15%) discount is valid for the event attendee and one (1) travel companion.¹ Discounts are valid for travel up to five (5) days before and after the AGA dates.

In addition to Havana, Copa Airlines serves a number of Caribbean destinations including Aruba, the Bahamas, Belize, Curacao, Haiti, Jamaica, St. Maarten and Trinidad & Tobago.

Tickets must be purchased through an authorized travel agency, at a Copa Airlines office, through Copa’s 24-hour telephone reservation center or on the website www.copa.com. Please see attached information for the preferential fare code for CBU delegates.

Delegates should plan their travel to arrive in Havana in time for the Opening Ceremony on Monday, October 24, 2016 at 9.00 a.m.

Transfers on Arrival & Departure

ARRIVING AT JOSE MARTI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (JMIA)

The journey time by car from JMIA to the Hotel Nacional and Hotel Capri is about forty (40) minutes. Taxis are available from the airport. The fare is CUC 25 per taxi.

Delegates who prefer to travel on the CBU-arranged group shuttles to and from the hotel are asked to pay USD 35.00 per passenger, each way.

The airport information desk is in the public concourse, on the ground floor. There is also a tourist information desk, INFOTOUR in the main concourse.

Visas

CARICOM passport holders are NOT subject to visa obligations to enter Cuba.

1. Participants who are NOT CARICOM passport holders may be subject to visa requirements and are strongly advised to send a scanned copy of their passports to admin@caribroadcastunion.org for preparation of an invitation letter to assist with the visa process.

Delegates travelling to Cuba on US passports can contact the Secretariat for more information on obtaining either an A-6 visa for “regional/international events, non-governmental, sponsored or assisted by Cuban organizations” or an A-7 visa for “exploring business or related commercial or economic activities”.

Currency

The official currency for visitors to Cuba is the Convertible Peso or CUC. 1 USD = 0.87 CUC. The CUC is a closed currency, which means it cannot be purchased outside of Cuba. However, CUC's can be obtained at the Cadeca (Money Exchange Bureau) at the airport on landing in Cuba, or at the hotel.

Credit cards can be used freely in Havana, once they are issued by a bank outside of the United States.

Conference Facilities

Hotel facilities are accessible to wheelchairs. Fully adapted accommodation for disabled persons is limited.

For any special needs – including dietary requirements - please include the information in the registration form.

Ground Transportation & Tipping

Taxis: Are widely available and can be requested at the hotel front desk.

Tipping in Cuba is generally not required, but is appreciated in restaurants and cafés.

Business Hours

Supermarkets, pharmacies specialty shops and banks are located around Havana, including in the district of Vedado where both of the conference hotels are located.

Shops: Monday to Saturday from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m.; on Sundays from 10.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m.

Banks: Monday to Friday from 8.30 a.m. to 3.30 p.m.; closed on week-ends.

CAMBIOs: Monday to Saturday from 9.00 a.m. to 3.00 p.m.

Weather & Time Zone

Cuba has tropical weather. Temperatures usually range from 25 C to 34 C.

The summer in Cuba is from June to August with temperatures that can reach 38 C in the Eastern regions. December, January, and February are the coolest months of the year in Cuba where the average maximum daily temperature is 25 C, and averages 18 C at night.

Cuba's time zone is GMT/UTC - 5h during Standard Time and GMT/UTC - 4h during Daylight Saving Time.

Meeting Attire

Business wear, suitable for a tropical climate, is recommended. However, working sessions will be in air-conditioned rooms and delegates should dress appropriately for these sessions.
