Key Populations include sex workers, drug users, MSMs, transgender individuals, persons in prison or other closes institutions, mobile/ migrant populations, marginalised children and youth.

VI SUBMISSION PROCEDURES

1. A record of each entry shall be submitted on the official entry form. Where the entry form has not been completed in all respects and signed by an authorised representative of the submitting entity, the entry shall be disqualified.
2. The responsible persons shall be clearly identified on the entry form. Where a non-member's entry is nominated by a member, the names of the originating production entity must also be stated.

Each entry shall be submitted for an award in only one category. The relevant category must be clearly specified on the entry form. Where an item has been submitted for more than one category the submitting/nominating entity will be advised by the Secretariat and required to select a single category in which the entry is to be judged.

3. Where an entry is a series or serial, unless otherwise specified in the rules for a particular award, only one episode from the series or serial shall be submitted per category.
4. Submitting entities may enter as many categories as they wish but shall not submit more than five (5) entries per category. Where the maximum number of entries per category is exceeded, the submitting entity will be advised by the Secretariat and asked to select the five (5) or fewer entries to be submitted. Failure to respond will disqualify all entries from the member involved in that particular category of award.
5. Entries may be submitted electronically, with their entry forms, to the CBU address info@caribroadcastunion.org via an e-mail message titled "CBU Media Awards Entry". Multiple entries and their associated forms may be included with a single message.
6. Entries may be submitted as attachments or via links to file-sharing sites, which must be freely accessible to the CBU Secretariat or uploaded to the relevant member folder in the CBU Media Share portal. Where the link to the file-sharing site is only available for a limited duration, the closing date for accessing the link must be clearly stated in the body of the message.
7. Where it is not possible to submit entries electronically they may be provided on tape or disc or other physical medium as appropriate.
8. Where physical entries are submitted, the tape or disc as well as the case/sleeve must be clearly labelled with the entry title and duration and the name of the submitting member.

9. Physical recordings of entries sent by mail must be postmarked no later than the closing date for submissions.
10. Material submitted is not returnable.
11. Where radio, television or digital entries are not self-contained, they must be accompanied by transcripts of the lead-ins.
12. All video entries are to be prepared at the start with colour bars and the international standard ten (10) second countdown.
13. Entries may be in any of the official languages of the countries/territories in which the submitting members are located. However, all entries not in English must be accompanied by a complete Standard English translation of the entire entry or be close-captioned in English.
14. Entries received after the stated closing date will be disqualified.
15. Only entries from members who are in good financial standing as of the date for assessment by the judging panel are eligible for receipt of a cash prize, except where otherwise indicated.

VII JUDGING PROCESS

1. The CBU Secretariat shall scrutinize all entries upon receipt and tabulate for the judging process those entries which meet the selection criteria and adhere to the submission procedures.
2. For the judging of all categories, except the “People’s Choice” award (selected by on-line and other means of polling), the CBU shall appoint each year a panel of qualified assessors and shall designate from among them a Chief Judge. Panel members shall not be affiliated to CBU member systems that have submitted entries for the current competition and shall be drawn from two (2) or more member territories.
3. The size of the judging panel and its modus operandi shall be determined each year by the CBU in consultation with the Chief Judge.
4. Technical Criteria for the judging of entries, shall be:
 - i. Content - Judges will assess the text of the entry for clarity, grammatical correctness, cohesiveness, flow and completeness of information. Judges will assess audio and/or video inserts for relevance to the overall production.
 - ii. Production - Judges will assess where applicable, quality of research demonstrated by the entry. Judges will also assess the entry for creativity in the use of material.
 - iii. Presentation - Judges will assess the entry for skill of on-air presenters, including interviewers, inaudibility, clarity of speech, and use of voice. Judges will also assess entries for skill in directing (video) quality of set design (video) and, where applicable, wardrobe (drama).
 - iv. Technical - Judges will assess skill demonstrated in editing (audio and/ or video) quality of sound (actuality, voice and music) as well as lighting and camera work (video)
 - v. Impact - Judges will assess entries for overall interest and effect
5. Depending on their assessment of the standard of entries, the judges may withhold awards in any category as they see fit. They may also ascribe “Special Mention” (without award) to an entry where warranted.
6. The sponsors of specific theme awards are invited to provide technical input on the entries recommended by the CBU judging panel for award or special mention. Sponsors may determine whether the recommended items are suitable for award or special mention.
7. Decisions of the judges’ panel shall be final.

VIII AWARDS PRESENTATION

1. Trophies won become the property of the entities originating the winning entries and shall be received on their behalf by persons duly authorized by them.
2. Any re-assignment of a trophy to the permanent custody of a person or persons participating in a winning entry is at the discretion of the submitting entity and is not a prerogative of CBU.
3. In the case of trophies won by non-members, each becomes the property of the originating production entity, which shall have sole discretion over any re-assignment of custody.
4. Only entries from CBU members who are in good financial standing as of the date for assessment by the judging panel are eligible for receipt of a cash prize
5. The precise date, venue and form of the Awards Presentation Ceremony shall be decided from year to year by the CBU.
6. Unless otherwise specified, the CBU shall not be responsible for costs related to the attendance of persons receiving awards at the Presentation Ceremony.
7. The CBU shall have the right to use extracts from winning entries for promotional/publicity purposes.
8. Unless otherwise indicated by the submitting entity, the CBU shall have the right to transmit/ publish winning entries via the media services of its affiliate, the Caribbean Media Corporation (CMC).
